President's Message

Dear Esteemed Members of IADVL,

Being in command of such a vibrant and illustrious group of specialists committed to the treatment of patients and the development of dermatology, venereology, and leprology in India has been a great honor. I am extremely proud and grateful to be departing my position as President of the Indian Association of Dermatologists, Venereologists, and Leprologists (IADVL).

We have tried some of the most remarkable developments in our field in terms of public awareness, brand creation, and research. We nearly doubled the research budget from the year before. The incorporation of contemporary technology such as artificial intelligence and regenerative medicine is now underway. We were successful in our goal to set a Guinness World Record, which connected the majority of members in addition to serving as a brand builder. The "CHALO-PATHSHALA" public awareness campaign was successful in both its anti-quackery and community education efforts. We have implemented a number of administrative reforms and made better use of the headquarters. Our website has been transformed into a platform for social, educational, and community-focused activities after being updated. Additionally, we have concentrated on promoting international collaboration and a more inclusive atmosphere. We faced difficulties, but we overcame them by adopting an optimistic outlook. Together, we have worked to strengthen the IADVL

However, our journey is far from complete. The challenges ahead are numerous with respect to activities related to academics and beyond academics. I am optimistic that IADVL will continue to grow and flourish under the leadership of Dr. Rajeev Sharma, the incoming president, and Dr. Bhumesh Kumar Katakam, the dynamic Honorary Secretary General in his second year in office. Our shared commitment to education, research, and the well-being of our members will guide us toward new heights.

As I transition out of office, I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to the IADVL Executive Committee, our state branches and city chapters, committees and taskforces, and each of you, our dedicated members, for your unconditional support. It has truly been a privilege to serve as the President. I look forward to continuing to work alongside you in different capacities as we embark on the next chapter of our collective journey. Thank you once again, and I wish you all continued success in your professional and personal endeavours.

Long live IADVL,

Dr Manjunath Shenoy M
President, IADVL (2024)

Message of President-Elect

Namaste dear Esteemed Members of IADVL,

I extend my warm greetings to each one of you. As we progress together on our shared journey of academic and professional growth, I wish to reaffirm our unwavering commitment to fostering excellence, innovation, and inclusivity within our association.

As we prepare to embrace the opportunities and challenges of the year ahead, I encourage you to continue contributing to the association's objectives - strengthening our collective voice as dermatologists and fostering a community grounded in the highest standards of ethics and professionalism.

Let us come together to advance the mission of IADVL, uplift one another, and make meaningful strides in the field of dermatology. I eagerly look forward to your ideas, suggestions, and active engagement in the association's activities.

Thank you for your trust and support. Together, we can achieve even greater milestones.

Warm regards,

Message of Imm. Past President

Dear IADVL Colleagues,

It gives me immense pleasure to pen this concluding note as the Immediate Past President of IADVL. The past three years of service to our association have been an enriching journey, filled with remarkable progress and achievements. Together, with the Executive Committees of 2023 and 2024, we accomplished several initiatives for the benefit of our members and the field of dermatology.

Some of our key highlights include: Academic Excellence: Through the efforts of the Academy, under SIGs, CMEs, Practitioners' Forum, and residents' programs, we delivered exceptional academic programs that have been widely appreciated.

Community Engagement: Initiatives like Mission Prison garnered praise for their impactful outreach.

Senior Member Benefits: I am particularly pleased that we introduced the registration waiver for members over 70 years for DERMACON and MID DERMACON, which has been well-received.

Successful Events: The DERMACON conferences in Mumbai and Hyderabad, along with MID DERMACONs in Calicut and Ranchi, were outstanding successes in 2023.

Growth of DVL Welfare Trust (DVLWT): Significant progress was made in 2023 to strengthen the trust and its initiatives.

International Collaborations: IADVL continued to expand its global presence through sister society meetings with EADV and AAD, further solidifying our international ties. This journey would not have been possible without the unwavering support of my EC colleagues and leaders. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to:

Presidents: Dr. Rashmi Sarkar and Dr. Manjunath Shenoy

Honorary Secretaries: Dr. Dinesh Kumar and Dr. Bhumesh Kumar

Vice Presidents: Dr. Vineet Relhan, Dr. Nirmaladevi, Dr. Shashi Kumar, Dr. Vinay Singh, Dr. Mukadam, and Dr. Asokan

Treasurers: Dr. Savitha and Dr. Kavitha

Joint Secretaries: Dr. Kavitha, Dr. Indrani, Dr. Prashant Jadhav, Dr. Sudhavani, Dr. Nirupama, and Dr. Vikas Shankar

Their encouragement, dedication, and collaborative spirit have made this journey truly memorable. Thank you, one and all, for your trust, support, and contributions to IADVL.

Hon. Treasurer's Note & Accounts

My humble pranams to all the esteemed IADVL members. It is a privilege to be a part of this ever-growing organization and work alongside the legends of dermatology. In my first year tenure as the Hon. Several administrative reforms have also been implemented, discussed and proposed. We have been working with futuristic IADVL for the benefit of the members.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my mentors of IADVL for their blessings and unwavering support, which has encouraged me to take on this significant responsibility on a national platform.

During my tenure, we have accomplished several notable financial milestones. A substantial amount of ₹14 crores has been exempted from the Income Tax Department during 2022-23, and notably, we secured an IT refund of ₹74,28,353 for the same. As per the previous AGBM approval , We have invested ₹2 crores in 4 mutual funds during the current financial year.

We have gone through the submitted MOUs / Agreements of Dermacon 2025 and discussed it on the financial implementations. Thanks to CFSAC for their unwavering support. I remain committed to serving IADVL with sincerity and dedication, striving to uphold the values of this organization and ensuring its continued success. Report of IDOJ

(16th July to 15th December 2024)

Dr. K A Seetharam
Editor-In-Chief - Indian Dermatology Online Journal

Indian Dermatology Online Journal Report : July 2024 – Dec 2024

Indian Dermatology Online Journal (IDOJ). has come out with three issues during this period, Sept-Oct, Nov-Dec 2024 and Jan-Feb 2025, well in time. IDOJ has received 1301 manuscripts in 2024, highest since its inception in 2010. The impact factor of the journal has also increased to 1.9 this year. This shows IDOJ is being cited in more articles worldwide than before.

IDOJ: Discontinuation of complimentary copies to all medical colleges

IADVL EC had approved the decision to reduce the print copies to minimum. An MOU has been signed with the publisher on this matter. IADVL through its email and e-groups has conveyed this matter to all the members in the country and additionally IDOJ has sent a letter to all the librarians and DVL HODs of all the medical colleges. A notification has been inserted in the November-December (2024) issue of the journal as well intimating this matter. They have been requested to subscribe to the journal which is a good revenue for the sustenance of the journal. This is expected to reduce the burden for the organization. Complimentary print copies to all corresponding authors of the published articles of every issue will continue unchanged. We are not charging any processing charges from the authors in any form. IDOJ will print only 100-150 copies from January-February 2025 issue. As and when we get subscription from the colleges and other sources, the number of print copies will be increased.

IDOJ MOU renewal

IDOJ MOU was renewed for three years, (2025-27) after discussions with IADVL EC and the publisher Wolters Kluwer. One hard copy has been kept at IADVL HQ Office, New Delhi. We thank the IADVL EC, Dr. Manjunath Shenoy (President) and Dr Bhumesh Kumar Katakam (Honorary Secretary General) for executing this on time.

IDOJ certificate of reviewer excellence

IDOJ has given the certificate of reviewer excellence 2024 to Dr Feroze Kaliyadan, Dr Anuradha Bishnoi, Dr Tarun Narang, Dr Meghana Phiske, Dr Maitreyee Panda, Dr Vani Talluru, Dr Sheetanshu Kumar, Dr Vishal Gaurav, Dr Hitaishi Mehta, Dr Ashish Jagati, and Dr Himani Chawla for their expert reviewing services to IDOJ. IDOJ is continuing the Web of Science reviewer recognition system (PUBLONS) for the 2025 and reviewers can take PUBLON credits from their reviewer account itself. This is set by default.

IDOJ Awards to Best Published articles in 2024

Indian Dermatology Online Journal (IDOJ) has the following awards to appreciate and encourage authors and scientific publishing. The editorial team is pleased to announce the best-published manuscripts selected under various categories in 2024 for the IDOJ Awards.

The winners will be honoured at the valedictory function of DERMACON 2025, JAIPUR.

Congratulations to all the winning authors!

Report of IJPGD

(16th July to 15th December 2024)

Yogesh Marfatia
Editor-in-chief

Ananta Khurana
Associate Editor

The Indian Journal of Postgraduate Dermatology (IJPGD), an official publication of the Indian Association of Dermatologists, Venereologists and Leprologists (IADVL), is the first dermatology journal focussed on Dermatology residents worldwide.

IJPGD is a bi-annual, open access, online and print journal, which has so far released four issues so far. It is a peer reviewed journal devoted to publishing novel and high quality original research, case descriptions, snippets and review articles on various disciplines of dermatology including Sexually Transmitted Diseases and Leprosy. Another major focus of the journal is on medical education pertaining to undergraduate and post graduate dermatology teaching methodologies and innovations.

The submissions to the journal have been a sharp upwards curve since its inception. And encouragingly, most of the submissions have been from residents and faculty of teaching institutes. Being the first journal targeted towards Dermatology residents, this is gratifying for the IJPGD editorial board.

In addition, we strive to involve interested residents in the peer review process as well, giving them a chance at understanding the scientific publishing process.

The statistics for last year (2024) are as follows: Total articles published : 59; Acceptance rate : 34.9%; Submission to acceptance : 91 days

The journal gave awards for Best paper in Postgraduate Thesis section, Best Original article, Best Review article, Best case series and Best case report in 2024, for publications in the year 2023.

The awards for this year to be given in Dermacon 2025 are as follows:

Best Review Article: Gupta S, Khullar G, Joshi R. Faculty's Forum: Approach to Learning Dermatopathology during Postgraduate Residency. Indian J Postgrad Dermatol. 2024;2:80-6. doi: 10.25259/IJPGD_160_2024

Best Original Article: Narayana Rao T, Gopal K, Chennamsetty K, Velapati S, Ananditha K, Adapa P. Clinical Features, Investigative Profile and Association with Metabolic Syndrome in Facial Acanthosis Nigricans: A Case–Control Study in Indian Patients. Indian J Postgrad Dermatol. 2024;2:69-73. doi: 10.25259/IJPGD_30_2024

Best Case Report: Méndez-Flores S, Vega-Santoyo ML, Hernández-Hernández F. Primary Cutaneous Aspergillosis in an HIV Patient and Combined Therapy: A Case Report. Indian J Postgrad Dermatol. 2024;2:98-100. doi: 10.25259/IJPGD_18_2024

IJPGD has also been consistently receiving submissions from outside the country, highlighting the gradually increasing awareness about this focussed journal.

The articles published in the journal are considered at par with other indexed journals, for the purpose of applying for IADVL scholarships and grants. IJPGD is indexed with Google Scholar, CrossRef, ReadCube, Portico currently and we hope to apply for PubMed indexation after a few more issues which shall provide further incentive to Dermatology residents to contribute towards IJPGD.

WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear SARCD Delegates,

It is with great pleasure and honour that we welcome you to the 13th South Asian Regional Conference of Dermatology (SARCD XIII) 2025, hosted by IADVL Karavali in association with IADVL KN and IADVL National, in the vibrant coastal city of Mangaluru.

Building on the success of SARCD XII held in Colombo, we are delighted to host SARCD XIII. The SARCD serves as a vital academic forum for dermatologists from SAARC countries to exchange ideas and disseminate knowledge on contemporary dermatological topics.

SARCD 2025 will be held from May 2nd to 4th 2025 at the TMA Pai International Convention Centre, Mangaluru, Karnataka. This is the third time Mangaluru is hosting a national dermatology conference, following the successes of DERMACON 2015 and MIDDERMACON 2021. Mangaluru, a prosperous port city on India's west coast, is known for its multi-linguistic culture, scenic beaches, and diverse cuisine.

The theme of the conference is "Skin in Shadows: Spotlight on Neglected Tropical Diseases." Attendees will benefit from the insights and experiences of distinguished speakers from SAARC countries and specialists worldwide. International League of Dermatological Societies (ILDS) President, Prof Henry W. Lim has been invited to grace the Inaugural ceremony of this prestigious conference. The conference promises a unique opportunity for learning, interaction, and growth. We guarantee an academic feast featuring renowned national and international faculty and exclusive sessions on neglected tropical diseases, aesthetic dermatology, and procedural dermatology. Dermatology in Internal Medicine, Pediatric Dermatology, Therapeutic Dermatology, Leprosy, Venereology, and Dermatopathology will also be prominently featured. Exciting sessions of paper and poster presentations by postgraduate students, engaging quiz competitions for practitioners and postgraduates will be held. Separate award sessions for case reports and original studies, as well as faculty dinners and banquets featuring a cultural extravaganza are planned.

We look forward to welcome you to this unique event, where we will engage in both academic and cultural exchanges of ideas.

We hope the academic event is a great success and that all attendees enjoy their time in our beautiful city.

Constitutional committee reply

The proposal recommends major changes in conduct of Dermacon. This would involve changes in constitution. Proposal is a forward looking one and deserves to be discussed. However, as it involves changes in constitution it would be better to take it up in CCM and then bring the matter to AGBM

EC Comments:

Conference reforms committee may be formed and all these suggestions may be discussed and brought to the CC

CFC Comments

Committee opinion for point 1, other points in the proposal do not involve finance and hence not in the purview of CFSAC.The significant reduction in the registration fee is likely to impact the conference surplus and, consequently, the income of IADVL. However, the proposal aligns with the prevailing sentiment of the members and merits consideration by the GBM.

15. Is it related to administrative/policy/constitutional (select one) OR we are not able to classify and accept EC's view. Leave it to the EC's view
16. How will it help IADVL? Brief introduction. 17. Date of result declaration should be 1 week before DERMACON as the newly elected office bearers does not hold any office position till then. 18. The time for voting should be restricted to 10 days as any e voter can do voting from any corner of the globe using internet. The campaign preferably be a silent campaign through e mails only, many members have objected to mass social media reach by the candidates which becomes disturbing often, many phone numbers are not valid/ are given to staff who cannot understand the meaning of election campaign and does not inform the dermatologist about the calls. Often most of such dermatologists miss receiving the secure code. But for the above to function smoothly, e mail data has to be up-to date, at present, many e mails are wrong, many deceased members names & details are on the list provided. If a candidate wants to call, the same can be done through personal contacts.

19.	The credentials of each candidate must be verified according to NMC guidelines for membership in the constitution, as in the recent elections one candidate has used wrong information in CV to solicit votes, and the same was displayed continuously during the whole election process despite it was brought to the notice.
20.	Each candidate must furnish an undertaking on Rs 50/- duly notorized stamp paper that He/she has not employed any non M.B;B.S. doctor (including spouse) who is doing procedures or is writing prescriptions at any of the clinics the candidate owns.
21.	The candidates for the post of President-elect are not to be invited at the CC meeting for the usual 05 minute presentation, rather a online presentation where maximum number of members can see and listen must be organized by the election office of the IADVL.
22.	If constitutional – will it replace the existing clause? Or modify? Give detail of the clause –page no. and clause no.
23.	Modify SECTION F , 2 (a) to (v) Pages 29-32

Constitution committee reply

The proposal if passed would entail change in constitution. Hence the proposal has to be first put up in CCM before bringing it to the AGBM.

EC comment:

There is already a proposal to reduce the number of days which is widely discussed in the CCM.
Silent campaigning: Yes; and there can be a presentation of their vision on a virtual meeting
Verification of credentials: Can be done if opponent complains Undertaking on stamp paper on not employing non-MBBS doctors in clinic- will it stand in the court of law?

14.	Is it related to administrative/policy/constitutional (select one) OR we are not able to classify and accept EC's view. Administrative & constitutional
15.	How will it help IADVL? Brief introduction. IADVL should engage a LAW firm which has pan India presence and can address and fight legal cases on behalf of IADVL members at the local level as IADVL v/s the opposite party. This will streamline the work against quackery in dermatology and also be of help in the legal cases if need arises. However, a proper MOU must be drafted citing all the services the Law firm is going to render to IADVL, and its scope. The amount to be furnished to the Law firm can be generated by parking a handsome amount of money from IADVL account into a high interest yielding instrument where the interest is earned back into IADVL account every month/quarter as per the decision of MOU for payment to the Law firm. This will give more confidence and clarity to the members as they can contact the local legal representative of the said Law firm,who will prepare necessary drafts and appraise the legal cell of IADVL and take proper actions. So far some amount from Rs 50,000000/- ear marked for anti quackery activities has been utilized by Tamil Nadu branch.

Constitutional Committee reply

Though the proposal is a forward looking one, it needs to be formulated with specific financial implications. If the finances involved are upwards of Rs 50,00,000 then the proposal needs to be first put up in the CCM before coming to the GBM.

Legal Cell Comments

Also many members have changed addresses/ state/ e mail & phone numbers, many are not traceable. It is proposed to introduce Yearly renewal of the membership to be introduced during the annual cuticons of state and Annual Dermacons where a dedicated booth should be erected where members can fill a form with attachment of the required documents and demographic details if any change is there or can update the data if no change is there at a nominal cost.This will inculcate a sense of belonging to the members and soon the database of membership will get corrected.

Reply by Constitution Committee

The proposal includes financial implications of more than 50 lakhs. Hence to be brought first to CCM and then AGBM. CFC is to be put in picture regarding the same.

EC Comments:

We have DVL-trust that takes care of the family of the departed IADVL training programs already in place providing free training and they can be further streghthened

CFC Committee opinion

Proposal is vague and not specific What does high interest paying instrument mean? IADVL as per Society Registration Act cannot park funds in stocks or ETF. Only investing in mutual funds and fixed deposit is allowed.Will there be income tax on the interest?What if interest goes down as is expected?As total death in a year will be known at the end of year, amount can be disbursed only after one yearTotal interest/total number of death

Regarding training course:

Currently IADVL has many fellowships and travel grants. So rather than creating new fellowship, amount in this grants can be increased.

We already have a DVLWT for the same purpose, that can be strengthened.

105. How will it help IADVL?

In addition to the existing criteria, members who have actively contributed to the association at the state or national level, in capacities other than President or Secretary of a State Branch, shall also be eligible to contest for the posts of President-Elect and Vice-President-Elect.

1. Enhancing Inclusivity: This amendment will broaden the pool of potential candidates, allowing members who have made significant contributions to the association, but may not have held the positions of President or Secretary of a State Branch, to have a fair chance to lead the organization.

2.	Addressing Representational Disparity: Large State Branches, with a substantial membership, may face challenges in securing the positions of President and Secretary due to the current eligibility criteria and the two-year waiting period for the post of Honorary Secretary. This amendment will provide greater opportunities for members from these branches to assume leadership roles.
3.	Strengthening the Central Council: To ensure that the Central Council is truly representative of the diverse membership of the association, we propose the following:
1.	Direct Election of Central Council Members: Central Council members should be directly elected by the general membership of the State Branches, rather than being selected by the Executive Committees.
2.	The number of Central Council members who can physically attend the Central Council meetings should be increased to ensure broader participation and decision-making.
3.	Equal opportunity may be given to all CC members, irrespective of age to participate in CC meetings.
4.	If constitutional – will it replace the existing clause? Or modify? Give detail of the clause –page no. and clause no. 1. Page number: 27,28,29 2. Section F (election) 3. Point no. 1 (g.a)

Constitutional Committee reply

1. It is not clear as to which capacity at what level what contribution for eligibility for President elect is to be considered. It is vague in saying " capacities other than president and secretary.
2. It says vice president elect- there is no position of vice president elect

So this proposal proposes to have a major change in eligibility criteria for President elect. Will require a major constitutional change if passed. Hence recommended to be brought before CCM and later at AGBM.

EC comment:

There is a need for a sufficient administrative experience and understanding of the IADVL constitution for a person who is contesting. Stringent criteria is necessary for contesting national elections. Any changes needs to be discussed in details. Formation of election reforms committee can be considered.

3. How will it help IADVL? Brief introduction.
   At present there is no mention in the constitution of IADVL about Zonal councils Governing Body, Composition, Power and duties of the governing body, Duties, Tenure Of Office Bearers, Manner of Election, Eligibility Criteria for Election, Procedure of Election, Resignation or Removal.
   Inclusion of these will ensure equal opportunity for each member in each zone. It will also regularize management of zonal conferences. At present there is huge differences in membership strength between small and large branches. Formation of zonal council will ensure transparent communication between national EC and an ordinary member as well as zonal state bodies. Under no circumstances the zonal councils will act against the policies of IADVL

3. How will it help IADVL? Brief introduction.
   1. At present for any SIG program a particular state branch must bear the expenses initially; to be reimbursed later by the sponsor but this does not include the CME Accreditation fees, local transport, printing and stationaries and office expenses etc. These should be included in the sponsorship amount, to be calculated by the state organizing team and ratified by IADVL EC an Academy.
   2. For any SIG program there should be an SOP for communication protocol between different stakeholders. At present, after the EC makes an MOU with a particular sponsor for an SIG program, when the organizing state approaches that sponsor, their state counterparts are usually unaware of it. These miscommunications have to be obliterated.

Academy Comments

All expenses of SIG events are routinely covered by the Sponsors directly like Brochures designing & printing, mementos, audiovisual, speaker's travel & stay, local venue bookings/ fee and lunch/tea. Some small expenses like CME Credit points fee (often few thousands only) may have to be deposited by State directly (this also reimbursed by sponsor) as State Medical Councils may not accept sponsor's cheques. In case of any assistance/ query, a given state Coordinators resolve the matter SOS along with Academy. This is routine and functioning fine in SIG events across country.Instructions/information's abut SIG events organization are well known to all states who routinely collaborate in SIG activities. This is also shared with all State Presidents and Secretaries in beginning of new academic year (post DERMACON) when invitation (mail) is sent out to opt for various SIG/Task forces events in their states in the given year.

Hence this proposal may not merit any consideration."

EC comments: Academy comments should be considered

3. How will it help IADVL? Brief introduction.
   Any person holding any administrative post may apply as an election candidate and if he/she wins the election then only he/she will resign from the existing administrative post. This will ensure that the state branch activities and academic activities of IADVL are not hampered due to resignation in anticipation which leads to administrative crisis. This proposal particularly speaks for SIG officials, state branch executives and academy members who are also proposed as a part of the DERMACON/ MID-DERMACON bidding committee.

Constitution Committee reply

The constitution presently states that SIG, Academy chairs and conveners need to resign before submitting applications for the incoming elections if they are going to contest. Views expressed previously in the AGBM is that such appointments can influence voter judgements as they are in important central posts once they are in the Dermacon/mid Dermacon bidding committees. This would involve a change in constitution if matter is passed. Suggested that proposal be brought to CCM before AGBM.
For the State EC and officials, the matter holds true when they are contesting for any post in National EC or related posts. However for being in the bidding committee of Dermacons, the matter can be discussed as the clause needs clarification

EC comments: It is preferable to avoid contesting election by a person holding an administrative post . However, this can be widely discussed in the CC and may be considered in the election reforms.

3. How will it help IADVL? Brief introduction.
   At present validity for Provisional Life Membership is five years for all states. Govt of West Bengal vide its order no. HF/O/MERT/923/ME/MISC-78-13 dated 10th June 2014 all candidates passing MD have to serve a compulsory bond period of three years (two years for DVD candidates). During the bond period all the original academic documents are kept in Govt. custody. So, the candidates cannot apply for conversion to life membership. This was already proposed in the AGBM of DERMACON 2019, and it was decided validity will be considered on case-to-case basis. This poses operational difficulties, so a uniform seven years validity period will ensure smooth PLM to LM conversion.

Constitution

44. How will it help IADVL? Brief introduction.

As per IADVL Constitution page 30-31, point k (last part): For bidding cities, the concerned states can use its official group for motivating its members about the city. The IADVL constitution itself allows the State Branches to officially motivate / campaign for its venue city bid, so the State IADVL Executives are empowered to campaign for the bid city and that has been the norm so far. In such a scenario, it is just and logically to allow the State Executives to hold key posts in the Organising Committee.

As the National Constitution itself allows the State Executives to motivate / campaign officially for its venue city bid and it would be the duty of the State Executives to do so without any conflict of interest. It is in the interest of the venue city bid and State, hence the Constitution makers made it clear that State can officially campaign / motivate. This is already part of IADVL Constitution.

The bid if successful, then the DERMACON will be held only three years after that particular election year and the tenure of that current State EC would be long over. In view of this point, the argument that State Executive would not be able to work/ conflict of interest because of the bid does not hold water.

The number of people who volunteer to work for the organisation are already on a decline, ambiguous clauses (Page 28, paragraph f, clause vi) further deter motivated members from working for the organisation. This clause has to be made clearer and to encourage members to be part of the mainstream.

In some states especially states with lesser membership numbers, some of the executive posts do not see find any applicants and even members are not coming forward to bid. Restrictive clauses may further hamper the enthusiasm of members who harbour such interest also.

So, it is an appeal that the State Executives, State President should be allowed to be part of the venue city bid in key posts (organisational & scientific) for DERMACON / MIDDERMACON.

Paragraph in question

Any member who holds the post of President/ Vice-President/ Hon. Secretary/ / Joint Secretary/ Treasurer in a state branch, Chairperson/Convener of IADVL Academy, Chairperson/Convener of Special Interest Group (SIG) and Chairperson/Convener of IADVL Standing Committees should resign from that post before submitting the nomination to contest in IADVL elections. (Passed as a proposal in Commencing year 2021 AGBM) This paragraph does not delineate whether the cities bidding for DERMACON, can those state presidents or EC members be their organising chairmans or other organising members.

Adequate signatories not present

Since this matter involves a clarification of the clause, it can be taken up for discussion.

Since State Presidents and other EC members actually will be involved in conduct of such conf only long after their tenure ends, it can be considered for discussion.

The constitution does not mention that such EC members of State cannot take posts as mentioned in proposal

EC Comments: It is preferable for the state EC to refrain from holding a organizational post while bidding. GBM can take a call on this aspect.

Our emblem also signifies IADVL's ever-expanding international presence in the area of dermatology. Historically, IADVL has only interacted academically with national societies, and not with private international organizations. Collaboration with reputed international organizations, such as ILDS member societies, is deemed necessary in light of the changing circumstances. This will increase IADVL's global visibility while also preventing such groups from working with other Indian organizations, which may raise concern among our members.

The Indian Association of Dermatologists, Venereologists, and Leprologists (IADVL) continues to grow steadily, with its membership expanding by approximately 1,000 members annually, now surpassing 18,000 members.
This remarkable growth underscores the need for experienced and visionary leadership to uphold the dignity nust have completed the age of 40 years for state-level elections and 50 years for national-level elections y he time of application. his requirement ensures that the leadership of IADVL remains in capable hands, fostering progress while naintaining the association's rich legacy of excellence.

- Clause (l) - All President Elect candidates and bidding cities will be given time to address the CC MIDDERMA MEET to put forward their vision. The time allotted shall be 5 minutes for presidential candidates and 10 minutes for bidding cities. A separate time shall be allotted during dinner time after business hours during CC MID- DERMA MEET.

Proposal: Introduction of online IADVL presidential debate and IADVL DERMACON debate of the bidding teams

It is observed that the time allotted for the presidential candidates and the bidding cities during the CC meeting is very less and is allotted during the dinner time after business hours when most of the members are enjoying their dinner. It is also true that due to very exhaustive business schedules of the CC meeting, it is difficult to allot more time. An online debate of the presidential candidates and the bidding cities arranged by the national EC is likely to be more useful exercise for the candidates and bidders to express their vision. If this proposal is approved, there will be no invitation for the presidential candidates and the bidding team to the CC meeting. Apart from the president and the bidding city, opportunity may be provided to other contesting candidates and MIDDERMACON bidders too.

Hence the clause (l) may be replaced as

- All President Elect candidates and bidding cities will be given time to address the IADVL members online to put forward their vision. The time allotted shall be 10 minutes for presidential candidates and 15 minutes for bidding cities. Using a multimedia presentation, the presidential candidate and the organizing secretary or chairperson on behalf of the DERMACON bidding cities will express their vision. If elections are held for other posts, all candidates and the MIDDERMACON bidding cities may be provided with 5 minutes each to express their vision. This will be referred to as the IADVL DERMACON debate and the IADVL presidential debate, respectively. It has to take place no later than two weeks before the election.

How will it help IADVL?

This will make the visions of the bidding cities and presidential candidates available to all IADVL members, not just the CC members. This will make members to choose their candidates and city more rationally; voter turnout is expected to rise as a result of this arrangement.

Do you think this needs referral to any specific committee?

Dr Rajeev Sharma urged that it should be extended to all contesting candidates to members Dr Narasimha Rao suggested that it should be scrutinized by Election Officer. Dr Rajetha Damisetty supported the proposal and suggested that it should be held in a virtual platform & should give time to important issues. Dr Y S Marhatia suggested that it can be removed from the CCM agenda and it should be held as a virtual meeting.

It will be for all contestants, not a debate but they will express their vision, and will be held 1 to 2 weeks prior to the election. Toal 36 supported the proposal and there was no objection. THE PROPOSAL WAS ACCEPTED.

Proposal: Holding the PEDDERMACON 2025 and International Society of Pediatric Dermatology (ISPD) regional convention together

PEDDERMACON is being hosted regularly, and has been an important IADVL and Academy event. It is being held to promote pediatric dermatology as a subspeciality of dermatology. Hosting an international congress with PEDRMACON will enhance the brand image of IADVL at the global dermatology. It will also benefit the IADVL members to attend an international conference in India, and learn from the global KOLs.

How will it help IADVL?

1. The mission statement of IADVL is to collaborate, cooperate, and coordinate with the international organizations. Therefore, holding the ISPD congress in India is consistent with IADVL's goals and mission statement
2. To date, India has not hosted an international conference on pediatric dermatology. This is a wise approach, given the potential for growing the subspecialty in India
3. Our members will gain from sharing scientific data in the field of pediatric dermatology with global key opinion leaders (KOLs), improving their expertise and skills
4. Considering our potential to bid on the WCD, the IADVL brand image needs to be improved. Organizing global conferences can help advance this goal.

Proposal: To cut down the DERMACON/Preconference CME duration down to three days starting from Thursday and ending on Saturday

Although, MIDDERMACON is conducted for 2 days (Saturday and Sunday) according to the constitution, almost all the previous conferences have hosted preconference CME/workshop, thus making it practically a 3 days conference. The proposal is presented to reduce the number of days of the conference MIDDERMACON to 2 days. This will reduce the conference expense by reducing one dinner and the entire day of deliberations held on Sunday, thus saving the hall rental and other related expenses.

Relevant clauses in the constitution may be modified as follows.

Two or more parallel sessions of CME can be held which may be called 'symposium', 'workshop', Masterclass', 'Master course', Focus session' etc. No extra charges shall be applicable for the CME.

There will be two lunches and one dinner on Saturday.

If approved, then the next clause shall be discussed.

3. FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

c) Of the conference collections, 30% of stall money and 25% of registration collected would be IADVL share (affiliation amount). After paying all the taxes, 75% of affiliation amount should be transferred to IADVL during DERMACON and the balance 25% must be credited to IADVL within a month of finalizing the accounts, and not later than next Central Council meeting at any cost.

How will it help IADVL?

1. Over all conference expense will reduce, and thus dependency on pharma companies. It can allow reduction in the registration fee for the delegates.
2. It is generally observed that the attendance of delegates is very less on the last day of MIDDERMACON (Sunday). By not hosting the conference on Sunday, the day can be utilized for the sightseeing or return travel.
3. Given the stringent regulations by the government on pharmaceutical companies and medical associations, funding for the conferences may be compromised in the future. Hence, it is important to reduce the conference expenses.
4. Reduced conference expense will also result in increased savings. Hence, the affiliate to the IADVL amount shall be increased by 10%.

Comments

President explained that this proposal and the proposal 7 can be discussed together because the objective is to reduce the expense. Dr Y S Marfatia suggested cut down MIDDERMACON days, but not DERMACON. Dr Jayadev Betkerur opined that by this we can reduce the cost but academic benefit will be lost. He felt that we should first reduce the number of halls. President mentioned that by reducing the workshops to half days (as they are video workshop) it is possible to host the conference in 3 days. It reduces the number of halls and participants in hall can be increased. Dr Kigshuk Chatterjee mentioned that we should decrease other webinars. President answered the process is ongoing and number of webinars are already decreased. He also explained that the MIDDERMACON was proposed to generate funds for CC meeting, but now both are separated. Dr Sharma also explained that we are struggling to generate funds and hence it is apt to reduce the number of days of national conferences. Dr Sudip Das suggested that MIDDERMACON should be held in tire 2 or tire 3 cities. He suggested separate session for Postgraduates can be arranged on Sunday. Dr Rajeev Sharma explained that we should hold the MIDDERMACON in tire2/tire 3 cities and he clarified that the post-graduates can present poster/paper in any conferences for the NMC requirements. Dr Ashokan told that the duration can be reduced without changing academic content. Dr Venkataram Mysore opined that the sessions of Sunday should be held on Saturday afternoon. Dr Raghunath Reddy supported the view, and suggested that Saturday dinner may be cancelled. Dr Dinesh Kumar D asked why only MIDDERMACON and why not DERMACON. President explained that there is a separate proposal for DERMACON however, it can also be discussed. Dr Jayadev Betukar suggested to reduce the number of halls. It was approved by the vote to shorten

MIDDERMACON to two days. There was a tie in the vote to shorten DERMACON to three days (17:17). Dr. Rajeev Sharma explained, the EC votes in the event of a tie. It is assumed that the suggestion is approved because EC is the one who made the proposal. THUS, BOTH OF THE PROPOSALS WERE ACCEPTED BY THE CCM. President clarified that this is not applicable to the DERMACONs to be held in Bangalore and the MIDERMACON to be held at Surat since the MOUs are already signed.

Proposal: To increase the international conference budget of the president and Hon Secretary General from Rs. 1.5 lakh to 5 Lakh Details: In order to host the IADVL events, the President and the Honorary Secretary General must be present in the international conferences where IADVL sister society meetings or similar meetings are conducted. Currently approved sum of Rs 1.5 Lakh are grossly inadequate to arrange their trip and other expenses like VISA procedure. Hence an increment in the budget is requested. This can be claimed for the conferences where IADVL sister society session or similar sessions are held.

How will it help IADVL?

The president and the honorary secretary general's attendance at international conferences helps the IADVL build its worldwide brand and may support its bid to organize WCD and other international conferences.

Do you think this needs referral to any specific committee?

Comments

Dr Shyam Verma and Dr Venkataram Mysore asked what is the basis for increase the amount to particular 5 lakhs. Dr Jayadev Betukar enquired if there are any mandate for how many conferences. President explained that it is based on his personal experience of attending conferences where IADVL sessions are there. He clarified that the president and hon. secretary should claim for only where there is IADVL sister society sessions or similar sessions. Dr Rajeev Sharma added that a maximum of rupees 5 lakh can be claimed and it is not sanctioned. Dr Mukadam added that since we are planning for WCD bidding, President and Secretary have to attend these conferences to help our bid. Dr Venkataram Mysore urged that the minutes of the meetings with comments by the members be circulated in physical copies. Dr Mukadam explained that it is necessary for the president and hon secretary to attend the international congresses . Dr Narasimha Rao felt that the budjeting be made separately for the president and the hon secretary. Dr Narendra Kamath felt that the travel insurance be included. Dr Kingshuk Chatterjee expressed that there is no need to have an upper limit and can claim the actuals. It was opined by the president that the proposal be rephrased based ion the comments received by the members. Proposal will be modified and will be presented in the AGBM. IT WAS ACCEPTED.

Declaration of results on e-groups and website: 8th day post- counting. Clause (l) - All

Proposal: To shorten the IADVL electronic voting period from one month to one week

IADVL e-voting is available from October 1 through October 31. EC observations show that most voting usually takes place in the first and last few days. Members may decide to vote at a later time, but they may end up forgetting to do so. This implies that a far shorter period should be used instead of the current one of one month, which is successfully implementing in IAP with 35000 members strength. Our recent Guinness World Record experience was a promising result, as nearly 60% of the life members pledged in a 24-hour period(5000 pledges took place within 4 hours). Based on this experience, a shorter schedule would be more appropriate for higher voter turnout.

Hence two lines in the clause (v) may be replaced as

Opening of e-voting: 24th October

Closure of e-voting: Midnight of 31st October

How will it help IADVL?

A, It will reduce the stress and economic burden on the candidates facing the election.

B, Voter turnout may actually increase as a result of shortening the E voting timeline.

C, Minimize disturbances to the primary members by repeated messages,phone calls etc.

Dr Sudip Das felt that 7 days is very less. Dr Rajeev Sharma answered that with experience from our Guinness world record attempt it appears that 7 days may be sufficient. DR Sudip Das it should be done gradually, and 3 weeks may be ideal. Dr Raghunath Reddy felt that a longterm campaigning is a burden for both contestant and election committee. The proposal was taken up for voting. It was opined that 15 days (October 1st to October 15) should be ideal.

New introduction in the IADVL

Proposal: Organization of PEDDERMACON Biennial conference on the format similar to DERMACON/MIDDERMACON.

- PEDDERMACON will be conducted as once in two year (Biennial) conference in the month of November (preferably, but not obligatory during the week around Children's Day) on a rotation basis
- Members of IADVL EC, Academy, SIG Pediatric Dermatology along with the local organizing committee will be involved in development of the scientific program
- Bidding and conduction of PEDDERMACON yearly conference will be arranged on the lines similar to DERMACON/MIDDERMACON in association with IADVL SIG PEDIATRIC DERMATOLOGY

How will it help IADVL?

Brief introduction.

Children with dermatologic complaints are seen by both the pediatricians (who at the same time attend to other children with non-dermatologic diseases) and the dermatologists (who at the same time attend to adults with other dermatologic diseases). Hence, a yearly national conference on pediatric dermatology on the name of PEDDERMACON shall be able to focus more on the dermatologic problems only in children and improve the quality of care by decreasing complications with early diagnosis and treatment. This conference, where dermatologists and pediatricians are invited to be the delegates, will be an opportunity for the dermatologists with special interest in pediatric dermatology to update. This conference is currently held under the aegis of SIG Pediatric Dermatology/Academy IADVL, and this proposal will enable it to be conducted under the aegis of IADVL akin to DERMACON and mid DERMACON. This will throw special focus on the subspecialty and smaller cities to host a national conference.

If feasible, it shall be held in January every year, preferably on the last Friday, Saturday and Sunday

Its total duration should not be more than 3 days for the conference. But CME can be held a day prior. Two or more parallel sessions of CME can be held one day prior to DERMACON, to be called as pre-conference CME. Sessions at the pre-conference CME may be called as symposium, workshop, masterclass, focus sessions etc.,

(f) The Organizing Committee should host dinner on the CME day and the first two days of the conference.

c) Of the conference collections, 20% of stall money and 15% of registration collected would be IADVL share (affiliation amount). After paying all the taxes, 75% of affiliation amount should be transferred to IADVL during DERMACON and the balance 25% must be credited to IADVL within a month of finalizing the accounts, and not later than next Central Council meeting at any cost.

Proposal: To cut down the DERMACON/Preconference CME duration down to three days starting from Thursday and ending on Saturday

Although, DERMACON is conducted for 3 days (Friday to Sunday) according to the constitution, almost all the previous conferences have hosted preconference CME/workshop, thus making it practically a 4 days conference. The proposal is presented to reduce the number of days of the conference DERMACON to 3 days. This will reduce the conference expense by reducing one dinner and the entire day of deliberations held on Sunday, thus saving the hall rental and other related expenses.

Relevant clauses in the constitution may be modified as follows.

a) A National Conference, known as DERMACON, shall be organized every year. Its number, e.g."36th national Conference of the IADVL" shall be written in the next line. it should be organized as DERMACON INTERNATIONAL once every four years in the year of the World Congress of Dermatology.

i. It shall be held in January or February every year, preferably on the Thursday, Friday, Saturday
ii. …….
iii. Its total duration should not be more than 3 days including the workshop. Two or more parallel sessions of workshop can be held on day one of the DERMACON for the entire day or half day, to be called as DERMACON workshop. Sessions at the workshop may be called as workshop, symposium, masterclass, focus sessions etc. Conference registration fee should include the fee for the workshop.

(f) On the first and second days of the conference, dinners should be hosted by the organizing committee. It will be an inauguration dinner on Day 1 and a banquet on Day 2. There is no dinner served on day 3.

If approved, then the next clause shall be discussed.

3. FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS

c) Of the conference collections, 30% of stall money and 25% of registration collected would be IADVL share (affiliation amount). After paying all the taxes, 75% of affiliation amount should be transferred to IADVL during DERMACON and the balance 25% must be credited to IADVL within a month of finalizing the accounts, and not later than next Central Council meeting at any cost.

How will it help IADVL?

1. Over all conference expense will reduce, and thus dependency on pharma companies. It can allow reduction in the registration fee for the delegates.
2. It is generally observed that the attendance of delegates is very less on the last day of DERMACON (Sunday). By not hosting the conference on Sunday, the day can be utilized for the sightseeing or return travel.
3. Given the stringent regulations by the government on pharmaceutical companies and medical associations, funding for the conferences may be compromised in the future. Hence, it is important to reduce the conference expenses.
4. Reduced conference expense will also result in increased savings. Hence, the affiliate to the IADVL amount shall be increased by 10%.

Proposal
The Indian Association of Dermatologists, Venereologists and Leprologists (IADVL) has been committed to fostering academic growth and professional development among its members. To further enhance this mission, we propose a revision to the eligibility criteria for the IADVL scholarship for attending national and international conferences. The current criteria allow members to avail one national and one international scholarship during their lifetime. The proposed changes aim to offer more opportunities for continuous learning and professional development, particularly accommodating the needs of members at different stages of their careers.

Current Eligibility Criteria
Members can avail:

- One national scholarship during their lifetime

Proposed Eligibility Criteria

For Members Below 40 Years of Age

- One national scholarship during their lifetime
- One international scholarship during their lifetime

For Members 40 Years and Above

- One national scholarship every five years
- One international scholarship every five years

Implementation
The proposed eligibility criteria changes can be implemented starting from the next year. The following steps are recommended for smooth implementation:

1. Notification to Members: Communicate the changes to all IADVL members through email, newsletters, and official website updates.
2. Application Process Update: Revise the scholarship application forms and guidelines to reflect the new eligibility criteria.
3. Monitoring and Review: Establish a system for tracking scholarship grants to ensure adherence to the new criteria (online submission portal through academy central). Conduct periodic reviews to assess the impact and effectiveness of the changes.

How will it help IADVL?

- Encouraging Lifelong Learning: The proposed changes aim to encourage lifelong learning and professional development by members of IADVL. By allowing more frequent access to scholarships, members can stay updated with the latest advancements and practices in dermatology.
- Catering to Career Stages: Members below 40 years are often in the earlier stages of their careers and may benefit from foundational exposure to conferences. Members above 40 years, who are likely to be in mid-to-late career stages, can benefit from periodic refreshers and advanced learning opportunities every five years.
- Enhanced Contribution to the Field: Continuous learning and exposure to national and international forums will enable members to bring back advanced knowledge, innovative practices, and global standards to their local practices and the broader dermatological community.
- Increased Engagement and Retention: Providing more opportunities for scholarship access can increase member engagement and satisfaction, potentially leading to higher retention rates within the IADVL.

Proposal

The Indian Association of Dermatologists, Venereologists and Leprologists (IADVL) is dedicated to supporting the academic and professional growth of its members. In light of changing economic conditions and inflation, we propose an increase in the stipend amount for Category 1 observership recipients (life members below 35 years). This increase will help ensure that our members receive adequate financial support to cover their living expenses during their observerships, enabling them to focus fully on their learning and professional development.

Current Stipend Structure

1. 4-Week Observership: ₹10,000
2. 3-Month Observership: ₹10,000 per month

Proposed Stipend Structure

1. 4-Week Observership: ₹15,000
2. 4-Month Observership: ₹30,000 per month

Financial Implications

The proposed increase in stipends will have budgetary implications for the IADVL. However, the long-term benefits of better-trained, highly motivated members who can contribute significantly to the field of dermatology justify this investment. We propose that the additional funds be allocated from the existing budget surplus or through targeted fundraising initiatives.

Implementation

To implement the proposed changes effectively, the following steps are recommended:

Approval from the CC: Seek formal approval from the IADVL CC to increase the stipend amounts.

Update Guidelines: Revise the observership guidelines and application forms to reflect the new stipend amounts (to be applicable from next year).

Communication to Members: Inform all eligible members about the increased stipends through email, newsletters, and updates on the IADVL website.

Monitor and Review: Establish a system to monitor the disbursement of the new stipend amounts and review the financial impact periodically (through online submission portal, academy central).

How will it help IADVL?

It helps the members of IADVL due to

1. Adjusting for Inflation: The cost of living has increased significantly over the years. The proposed stipend adjustment reflects these changes, ensuring that members can meet their expenses adequately during their observerships.
2. Encouraging Participation: By offering a higher stipend, we aim to encourage more young members to take advantage of the observership opportunities without financial constraints being a barrier.

3. Supporting Comprehensive Learning: An increased stipend will allow members to focus entirely on their learning experiences without the distraction of financial concerns, thereby enhancing the overall quality of their observership.
4. Attracting Talent: Providing competitive financial support can attract more talented young dermatologists to the IADVL observership programs, enriching the learning environment and fostering a culture of excellence.

Proposal
The Indian Association of Dermatologists, Venereologists and Leprologists (IADVL) has consistently strived to promote academic excellence and professional development among its members. As part of our ongoing efforts to recognize and reward outstanding research, we propose the introduction of an IADVL Thesis-Based E-Poster Award at DERMACON and MIDDERMACON. This new award will complement the existing oral presentation sessions and provide an additional platform for showcasing high-quality research conducted by our members.

Current Awards and Presentations

At present, IADVL recognizes thesis-based research through oral presentations at DERMACON and MIDDERMACON (PG thesis award sessions). These sessions have been instrumental in encouraging members to present their thesis work and have been well-received within the community.

Proposed Addition: Thesis-Based E-Poster Award

Award Categories

We propose the following categories for the IADVL Thesis-Based E-Poster Award:

1. Best Thesis-Based E-Poster (National): Awarded at DERMACON
2. Best Thesis-Based E-Poster (Regional): Awarded at MIDDERMACON

Eligibility: This thesis-based award will be open to all postgraduates who have completed and submitted their thesis by the last date of abstract submission or have cleared the exam in the preceding 2 years.

The application must be forwarded by the Chief guide/supervisor of the postgraduate. It is mandatory for the PG student to himself/ herself present the paper. Pre-registration for the conference will be mandatory for the postgraduates whose abstract is selected for this session.

The candidates are required to submit an ethical clearance certificate from the Institutional Ethics Committee. An undertaking that the proposed thesis is their original study plan and there are no conflicts of interest has to be signed by the applicant, guide and co-guide (if applicable) and submitted (sample format attached). Any paper selected in this category, will not be considered for free or award paper in the same conference.

The evaluation shall be carried out by the IADVL Academy members with a pre-structured evaluation sheet as done for PG thesis based oral presentation.

Awards: There are 3 awards for this session and the winners (both the chief guide and postgraduate) will be awarded with a certificate and Rs 5000, 4000, 3000 each for the first, second and third prize, respectively.

Implementation

1. Call for Submissions: Announce the introduction of the e-poster award and invite submissions from eligible members from next year.
2. Review and Selection: Done online through academy central
3. Award Presentation: Present the awards during the valedictory at DERMACON and MIDDERMACON.

Financial Implications

The financial implications for introducing the e-poster award are minimal. The primary costs involved will include the creation of certificates and prizes for the winners.

How will it help IADVL?

- Enhanced Visibility for Research: The e-poster format allows for broader dissemination of research findings, reaching a wider audience and enabling more in-depth discussions during the conference.
- Increased Participation: Introducing an e-poster award will provide an additional opportunity for members to present their work, thereby increasing participation and engagement at DERMACON and MIDDERMACON.
- Recognition of Excellence: The new award will recognize and reward outstanding thesis-based research, encouraging more members to undertake high-quality research projects.
- Flexibility and Convenience: E-posters offer flexibility in terms of presentation and can be accessed at any time during the conference, allowing for greater convenience for both presenters and attendees.

Proposal: Any request for accommodation for delegates (IADVL members) from any source can be obliged either directly by the organizing committee or through the event management company and the handling charges need not exceed more than 10% of the actual room rent.

How will it help IADVL?

Artificially inflating room rent may provide resources to the organizing committee. But it will inconvenience the members due to high expectation from the companies. And the number of members benefitted will also get limited. So by not inflating room rent and limiting handling charges to less than 10% will benefit IADVL members

Do you think this needs referral to any specific committee?
No.

Dr Mitakshari Hugar explained that the hotel rooms are given at a higher rental than the actual at the conferences. Dr Rajeev Sharma informed that the organizers cannot block the rooms as per the MOU. Dr Raghunadh Reddy and Dr Gyaneswara Rao suggested that it is the responsibility of organizers to ensure that the hotel tariff are not raised. However, the event managers usually book rooms and escalate the tariffs which is very difficult to stop. PROPOSAL WILL GO TO AGBM FOR FURTHER DISCUSSION.

Proposal: There should be some regulatory guidelines issued by IADVL for its members who are organising the conferences outside the purview of State Cuticons, Mid-Cuticons, National and Mid-Dermacon. A thorough background check of the delegates via IADVL number or MCI/NMC recognised MD/DVD/ DNB degree certificates in the lecture halls and workshops to ensure only the registered delegates, who have been through a thorough background check are attending. Organisers to ensure that the speakers, moderators and chairpersons are not associated with any institute which promotes/ trains or employs non-MCI/NMC registered MD Dermatologists, also a separate undertaking to be signed with the industry sponsors of the conference stating that any evidence pointing towards their role in promoting quackery will lead to a strict action against them, and any lapse in these actions will invite blacklisting.

1. How will it help IADVL? Quackery in dermatology is one of the most important issues which is threatening our speciality. We are witnessing an upsurge in the number of the so-called wellness centres and Dermatology/cosmetology training institutes. We all recognise the multiple heads of this vice and one of the heads is quackery promotion by IADVL members. We believe that "Charity begins at home" and before pointing fingers at others, we feel we need to clean up our own house first and for that purpose, we need strict regulations and guidelines to be issued by the association for its members. These guidelines will help us regulate the conferences which are beyond the purview of IADVL. It will also help us in identifying which all of our industry partners are in cahoots with the quacks, so that we can terminate our association with them. We feel this will be sending a strong message across that IADVL in no form will be tolerating quackery, whether it has been promoted by our own IADVL members or our industry partners.

3. Do you think this needs referral to any specific committee? YES. Ethics Commmittee and SOP Committee

President informed that a meeting is being planned with all our members who host private CMEs and conferences so that the concerns of large majority of the members are taken care of in theses conferences. Dr Rajetha Damisetty demanded that if quackery is promoted in these conferences, disciplinary action should be taken against the organizers. Dr Raghunath Reddy IADVL should give regulations & cross check with data base No registration to co-delegates, Dr Dinesh - LM numbers can be given Dr Rajetha asked clarification Dr Deepali - what is the action plan taken if any quackery comes to conferences. Dr Deepali Rathod suggested that an agreement should be there with organizers and supporting pharma that the non-dermatologists are not brought as delegates. Dr Venkataram Mysore urged that the conference organizers may be provided with the list of IADVL members to crosscheck if they are members of IADVL. Dr Raghunath Reddy ensured that he takes care of these concerns in the conference he organizes. Dr Amith Malhotra suggested that we should cross check with IADVL ID, and Dr Netha Narasimha Rao suggested to have a photo ID. Dr Rajeev Sharma mentioned that we should also take action against the pharma companies hosting conferences and inviting non-dermatologists.

MINUTES OF CC MEETING

IADVL CENTRAL COUNCIL

MEETING MINUTES OF MEETING

Day 1: 10th AUG 2024
Radisson Blu, Kaushmabi Ghaziabad

(Minutes of the meeting written based on the written draft and available video-recorded CCM proceedings)

Meeting with State Presidents and Secretaries

Dr. Bhumesh Kumar Katakam, hon. general secretary welcomes the state executives. President Dr Manjunath Shenoy thanked the state executives for attending the meeting. He brought this to the notice and expressed that it is undesirable that he attracted attention to the disparities between the national and state constitutions. He suggested making changes, establishing a state constitution committee to update the document, and maintaining constant communication with the national committee.

Concern about increasing numbers of non-IADVL CMEs was brought to notice by Dr. Himanshu Gupta. The president replied that this can be achieved by advising pharma companies to support IADVL activities by the state and city executives and having a meeting with those who are conducting them to implement IADVL's concerns in their scientific meetings. The issue of differences between the names of award paper presenters at conferences and genuine researchers was brought up by Dr. Manoj Ram, Hon. Secretary, Odissa. The president recommended that such matters be brought to the attention of the Academy and EC so that appropriate action might be taken. The EC and CC members expressed their gratitude to Dr. Anuradha K, Hon. Secretary, IADVL Kerala, for her contribution to the Chief Minister's fund for Kerala's flood recovery. The Tamil Nadu IADVL branch president-elect, Dr. Dinesh Kumar Devraj, requested the transfer of funds to the state's anti-quackery committee in support of their high court litigation against the dental fraternity that performs dermatological operations. The president briefed CC on an effort to coordinate with the societies of ophthalmology, ENT, and plastic surgeons to combat the practice of cosmetic dermatology by the dental fraternity. It was suggested that these topics be discussed in a virtual meeting, and required assistance can be sought.

Honorary Secretary General Dr. Bhumesh Kumar discussed the significance of the best branch criteria. He gave a quick overview of OMAS's operations and clarified that payments must be made within 30 days. He also provided clarification on the address proof filing question. Dr. Rajeev

Sharma clarified that a member working in a medical college is as good as practicing. The applicant's Aadhar card, passport, electricity bill, or proof of rent are adequate if they are not employed in the state. If they work in a clinic or institute, one can use an appointment order as proof of address. The allocation of membership for Nepali citizens stationed in India under the cultural exchange program was questioned by Dr. Gullima Arora, President of the DSB. It was made clear that while LM status cannot be granted, PLM can.

With a vote of thanks, the honorable secretary general brought it to an end of the meeting.

2.00 PM CC meeting.

The meeting was opened by the Honorary Secretary General, Dr Bhumesh Kumar, who declared that there was a quorum present.

Dr. Manjunath Shenoy, the president, gave the opening remarks and welcome address. He addressed the significance of administrative and policy changes to be debated in the CCM for the association's successful operation. Additionally, he informed the quorum that EC had recognized that the majority of actions would not begin until the CC meeting. To get around this, the events were planned well in advance, as demonstrated by the Guinness World Record (GWR) for the most pledges made for an IADVL campaign to raise awareness of dermatological diseases. He acknowledged the significance of the activity as a means of enhancing the association's brand and thanked the state branches and committees for their cooperation in making the event a success. He also discussed how to lessen the burden of conferences and CMEs, particularly MIDCUTICON, and convert it into an academic event that can be conducted in an institute. He also provided information on the initiatives to bring dermatological conditions within the PMJAY program and the GST-related problems that our patients are facing. He mentioned the efforts to influence the concerned ministries and governmental bodies. He also shared plans for this year that will be carried out over the course of the next six months. He clarified that the next six months will be devoted to making the most of the member website, patient-related activities through the IADVL website, clinic verification/certification program, "Chalopathshala" and other community events, and continuation of government liaison activities.

He also applauded the opinions regarding the bolstering of headquarters personnel. We can hire a business secretary, Dr. Sunil Vartak said. Drs. Shyam Verma, Putta Srinivasa, and J. Betukar stated that the first step is to outline the job chart or SOP for headquarters staff. Dr. Shital Poojary recommended a full-time employee under EC's supervision. According to Dr. Venkatram Mysore, the plan had previously been considered and approved, but for some reason it was never put into action. According to the resolution adopted at the 2024 Annual General Body Meeting (AGBM), EC will now accept applications for the CFC-Chairperson position. It was also revealed that the president, president-elect, and CFC chairperson will make up the three-member selection committee. She also mentioned the methods to circumvent the regulations while conducting conferences. The president clarified that the conference organizers are only able to handle the registration, lodging, and travel of the speakers but not the delegates. To see whether there are any other options, we can also meet with the EC, the conference organizing team, and the pharmaceutical compliance team. According to Dr. N. Asokan, this could be a ruse to ensure that only legitimate delegates attend the meeting. Dr. V. P Kuriyipe however felt that there will be some way to host the conferences in a grand way without compromising the rules, which the EC should explore. Dr. Savitha also read out the IADVL financial position and the plans to invest further. Dr Shital Poojary suggested that this is the right time to invest in FDs since the interest rates are high. CC suggested that we can go ahead with the plans of our investment subcommittee.

Dr Savitha also read out the CFC preliminary report on the complaint received by Dr Putta Srinivas and two other organizing committee members against the organizing secretary Dr A Gnaneshwar Rao. The details are as follows.

Comments from the committee on the printing expenses: Explanation given by OS is not satisfactory. Rs 5,62,000 for 150 abstract book seems to be highly inflated price, ie Rs 3700 per book. Overall printing expenses Rs. 1,53,14,112 where 63 lakhs is for printing and posting 34000 brochures needs further enquiry.

Comments on catering expenses: There are discrepancies in the emails submitted by the complainant and documents submitted by the organizing secretary. MOU with caterers was done after the conference. MOU dated 22nd January has been submitted to committee. This matter needs further enquiry.

Comment on fabrication works: MOU/Work order mentions 3.7 crore, and the OS has not responded to this point, and he has to respond.

Complaint on delegate bag: Delegate bags were agreed to be provided @ 1100 inclusive of GST in a meeting with OC, but MOU it is 1200 plus GST. However, reply given by OS is acceptable.

Concluding Remarks:

1. There appears to be differences in the amount discussed in the meetings and the MOU.
2. MOUs with venders were not shared with the EC as per DERMACON MOU.
3. A physical meeting is essential at this point of time wherein FOC subcommittee / CFC can check/cross-check various claims/counter claims/documents in presence of both the sides in the Org. Com. of Hyderabad DERMACON.

Dr. Putta Srinivas explained that there are many instances where there is a lack of transferency, and hence third-party auditing is the only solution. Dr. Savitha explained that the auditor feels that the invoices are in order. Dr. Putta answered that the routine auditing will not get into the procurement details; hence, the third-party auditing is a must. Dr. Rajetha Damisetty supported his view. The president explained that the EC took serious note of it and went to Hyderabad and hosted a meeting with the org committee. However, it was not possible to resolve the matter. Dr. A. Gnaneshwar Rao explained that the auditing has already taken place and the organizing chairperson did not participate in the auditing; he just visited the place and left. Dr. Rajeev Sharma insisted that time has already been provided for discussion on Sunday and more proceedings of the day will have to be conducted. It was decided to discuss the conference report during the time provided on Sunday.

Seetaram announced about the discontinuation of the complementary copies to the medical colleges. Dr Shashikumar BM enquired about the reason to stop complementary copies of IDOJ; Dr Seetharam explained that complementary copies were given to increase the visibility pf the journal. Now we have crossed the stage. The reports were approved.

Drs. Biju Vasudevan and Rajesh Verma presented the IADVL Constitution Committee's report. They described the continuous efforts to register the constitution at the Varanasi registration office.

Dr. Verma believed that the SOP committee and the constitution committee should be combined. The president clarified that, if the CC agrees, a significant portion of the constitution will be transferred to the SOP for registration purposes. SOP is binding and still pertinent. Dr. Rashmi Sarkar said that indexing and a subcommittee should be established if it was going to be combined. According to Dr. Verma, a society's registration should consist of three components: a rule book or SOP, rules and regulations, and the memorandum of association (MOA). According to Dr. Rajeev Sharma, we should submit what the registrar requests, and the constitution committee has demonstrated the way. Once approved, we shall acll an EGBM to approve the same. They clarified that the IADVL awards were reviewed over a number of rounds of meetings and discussions. They mentioned that a number of awards are still in effect after the allotted time period. Dr Mysore explained that similar recommendations were also given by committees headed by Drs Dipak Parikh, Ramesh Bhat and Betkerur, but for some reasons they were not implemented. He also explained that, for the members' review, the committee report was distributed in the CC group. If members of the central supervisory committee apply for awards, Dr. Deepika Pandhi wanted to know. Dr Mysore responded that in the current report only the EC and the key OC members of the conference are excluded to apply. The topic of expanding the number of awards for postgraduates was also discussed. Dr. Venkataram emphasized that numerous awards had already been given out. Proposal was accepted.

He and Dr Netha Narasimha Rao, the treasurer, submitted a cheque of the savings, and explained that a total of about ten and a half crore rupees has been saved. While presenting the report CC members pointed out some totaling errors in the accounting. He thanked the organizing committee members and the national EC for the cooperation. He explained that more is expected as saving because some more pharma sponsorship money is yet to be collected. Dr Vijay Zawar commented that even after six months of conference pharma are not paying the sponsorship amounts which h should be considered seriously. Dr Venkataram Mysore pointed out three places where totaling has gone wrong, and he urged that such mistakes should not take place when the report is presented in CC meeting. Dr Shashi Kumar BM enquired about the savings and Dr Rao clarified that the ten and a half crore rupees includes the GST paid. Dr Raghunath Reddy also mentioned that the GST part cannot considered as the saving. Dr Venkataram Mysore commented that the expenses towards printing is very high and Dr Rao clarified that it includes branding expenses. Dr Mysore also explained that the 3rd brochures were not received by the delegates. Dr Rajesh Verma suggested that the OC can propose the predicted expenses 6 months prior to the conference.

President invited discussion on alleged financial irregularities. Dr Gnaneshwara Rao urged that if any irregularities are found, the organizing chairperson is also equally responsible since he has signed the MOU. He mentioned that it is worth noticing that he also attended the inaugural and valedictory ceremony as organizing chairperson. He complained that the organizing chairperson has not attended the audit by the national auditor. President mentioned that some of the OC members have started discussing the financial irregularities on the social media, and he strongly condemned.

Dr Putta Srinivas responded that his complaint against the organizing secretary is to ensure that the financial irregularities are not allowed to happen, and the IADVL is benefited with larger savings. Considering exponential increase in the conference budget, it is important to conduct enquiry by a committee and third-party auditing to prevent corruption. He reiterated that this complaint is genuine and he has provided supporting documents. He claimed that the organizing secretary informed him that he had no significant part to play in the conference when he was questioned about why he had not resigned. As a result, he kept his job and reaffirmed that he was not accountable for any irregularities. He insisted that a committee is formed by the three presidents to look into the matter. President explained that there is a committee to oversee the conference finances under CFC and they have presented the preliminary report. Dr Vijay Zawar explained that the EC has taken a serious note of the complaint and has already initiated due action under the ambit of the constitution by involving the CFC. Dr Savitha AS, CFC chairperson explained that they have gone through the documents provided by the complainants and are in communication with the organizing secretary. She clarified that while the committee approved some of the responses by the organized secretary, the organizing secretary did not respond to others. She also mentioned that both parties have submitted the documents and there are disparities in both the documents provided, and hence a physical meeting is necessary to sort out the differences. Dr Raghunatha Reddy felt that this is very unfortunate and it is difficult to hold the conferences if such incidents occur. Dr Sudip Das opined that CFC can handle this issue. Dr Venktaram Mysore felt bthat there has to be one leader in the conference hosting, and that is the organizing secretary. Organizing chairperson shall play a moral role. CFC is yet to give its final report only then the question of forensic auditing or not shall be considered. President once gain requested that the matter should not be discussed in the media or public platform.

The EC concluded the meeting that the CFC should be continuing with the enquiry and the submit the final report and to explore the possibility of hosting a physical meeting with the complainants and the core OC if deemed necessary.

SOCIAL MEDIA ETIQUETTE GUIDELINES

Social media etiquette guidelines for IADVL members Jan 15th 2025
Prepared by IADVL ethics committee 2023 and 2024

- Social media is defined, as per the World Medical Association (WMA), as 'a collective term for the different platforms and applications that allow user-generated content to be created and shared electronically'. India was home to 462.0 million social media users in January 2024, equating to 32.2 percent of the total population. This number has been increasing exponentially in the past half a decade and is expected to increase as rapidly in the years to come.

  Social media, while providing an excellent opportunity for health education for all physicians, can be a double edged sword fraught with mora, legal and ethical challenges when it is used in a professional capacity.

  The following document is an endeavour initiated by IADVL ethics committee 2022-23 to provide guidance to Indian dermatologists regarding ethical and legally sound usage of social media while attempting to differentiate dermatologists from unqualified influencers in the public eye. It is based on the NMC code of ethics 2002 and is very different from guidelines of western world where physicians are not forbidden from endorsing products. The first part containing the guidelines was approved in the annual general body meeting during DERMACON in February 2024; the second part elucidating the penalty matrix was approved by the IADVL central council in August 2024. Moral policing and condescension are not the aim of these guidelines. Rather, these guidelines would help dermatologists withstand pressure of social media in giving in to unprofessional behaviour and help them battle misinformation that is all too easily accessible to gullible public.

  This document will be circulated to all IADVL members and their inputs considered before revising it and presenting it to the IADVL general body in Jaipur during DERMACON 2025. We, the ethics committee, request IADVL members to write to iadvlethicscommittee2024@gmail.com regarding their objections and suggested edits by 30th Jan 2024.

  Best regards,
  Rajetha Damisetty,
  Chairperson,
  IADVL ethics committee 2022-24

Aims:

1. To safeguard the skin health and well-being of lay public and to prevent their exploitation by unethical practices on social media followed intentionally or unintentionally by dermatologists, physicians and people who belong to diverse walks of life
2. To ensure that dignity of the fraternity and the association are maintained in the public eye and in the eyes of the law
3. To differentiate dermatologists from cosmetologists and various other wannabes so that the fight against quackery on social media is eased partly
4. To prevent trolling of conscientious dermatologists by the lay public by laying down clear guidelines to prevent misinterpretation of their unwillingness to indulge in unethical or illegal practices
5. To create an example for "skin influencers" regarding disseminating facts that hold up to scrutiny

The headings:

- General guidelines
  - What does social media include
  - Basic tenets for IADVL members
- Professional communication on social media
- Punitive measures

General guidelines

1. What does social media include:

An internet based technology that facilitates the sharing of ideas, thoughts, and information through virtual networks and communities. At this point of time, it includes
I) Whatsapp

II) Facebook

III) Instagram

IV) Twitter (x)

V) Linkedin

And would include internet applications that may be introduced in future that serve the same purpose.

2. Basic tenets for IADVL members

I) Respectful dignified behavior – our professional standards remain the same whether communicating through social or traditional media.

II) Slander, libel and making derogatory statements on social media about any object, person or organization (including a professional body such as IADVL) may put one at risk of prosecution and/or penal action.

Defamation is the communication or publication of false information about a person or certain organisations that damages their reputation. Material posted online by individuals or organisations that are false, untrue, misleading or deceptive can have significant legal and financial consequences.

One is responsible for all the content made from their profiles. However, nobody is expected to monitor social media for things that may be written about them in forums they don't control. Exercise caution while tagging colleagues and friends unless it is clear that they would not object to being associated with the post.

III) Maintain separate handles/profiles for personal and professional facets of life. Carefully choose who you allow access to, particularly to your personal profiles.

IV) Friend requests that show up on one's personal profile may be directed to the professional network page/handle.

V) Remember that you are always a doctor. Do not post anything that would make you or your parents feel awkward in case they come across it. This includes nudity, expression of opinions that may be considered discriminatory by religious / political/ LGBTQ groups, use of recreational drugs including alcohol etc. Your professional calibre and character may be judged by the image you present on your personal profiles.

VI) Anything posted on social media might not be deleted completely and may persist in the form of cached data or saved or forwarded files. The content you post may be discoverable even after you delete it.

Professional communication on social media

All written and visual communication on the professional handles should be rational, truthful, respectful and professional.

a. Abiding by law of the land

i) As per Indian law, doctors are prohibited from advertising any products in their professional capacity. Hence, paid promotions and unpaid promotions of any product or procedure on social media platforms are both out of bounds for dermatologists

ii) Treatment dispensed over social media is considered illegal as the content creator is unable to evaluate patients over these platforms. Therefore, mentioning any drugs including over the counter medications should be avoided.

If a patient approaches doctors through public social media, the doctor should guide the patient toward a telemedicine consultation or in-person consultation as the situation warrants.

iii) The boundaries between public education and promotional activities may be blurry at times; IADVL members are advised to use their discretion to decide the boundary. Educational posts that speak about classes of drugs/ procedures or guidelines and / principles in treating specific disease conditions are encouraged.

Any awareness about lifestyle modifications that would aid well-being of dermatology parents are welcome. Any content that would dispel misgivings or myths that are commonly believed is appreciated.

Suggest strongly that it is an advantage to get advice from a qualified dermatologist. And define the term. Do not use the term 'cosmetologist' to describe yourself. Use the designation "cosmetic/aesthetic/procedural dermatologist".

iv) Procedural videos should be made keeping in mind the risk of being mimicked by untrained people. They should be preferably brief and carry disclaimers advising those watching against simulating the procedure unless they possess requisite qualifications and are adequately trained.

v) Soliciting patients and advertising discounts on any medium (social/traditional) is forbidden as per Indian law

vi) IADVL members are advised to refrain from paying for likes and followers to avoid being reprimanded by the NMC.

vii) Taking informed consent regarding sharing patient photographs and/videos on social media is mandatory. Maintaining patient privacy is imperative even after consent is taken. Appropriate masking of eyes and lips and distinct identification marks such as tattoos, birthmarks and jewellery should be ensured.

viii) Stick to stating science and areas of expertise. The information shared should not be misleading or deceptive, nor should it exploit the patient's vulnerability or lack of knowledge

While talking about matters unrelated to core area of expertise on the professional handle, a disclaimer is warranted.

ix) Do not shy away from talking about skin care and hair care in a scientific manner. Do mention ingredients but also the possible adverse events and precautions of the same. Frequently add the disclaimer that an in person consult with a qualified dermatologist is the best way of getting a bespoke skin/hair regimen.

x) Declare any real or potential conflict of interest

xi) Handling negative online reviews: Avoid breaching patient confidentiality while engaging in the conversation. Maintain a polite tone in the conversation. If false allegations are made, mention the same while stating a physician does not reveal sensitive information that would lead to breach of patient confidentiality. And report the same to the platform administrator and get them to block the person and/delete the comments.

b) Using social media for advocacy

i) Declare whether you are speaking on your own behalf or on behalf of an association.

ii) Declare conflicts of interest.

iii) Avoid unproductive/inflammatory comments

iv) Use your professional clout to create positive change in the society

Punitive measures

Guidelines are meaningless unless they are respected and followed in letter and spirit. To ensure that the aims of creating these guidelines are met, the following steps shall be implemented.

i) Complaints regarding non-adherence to guidelines may be sent to IADVL ethics committee/ IADVL executive committee.
ii) An explanation and retraction of the said post shall be called for by the committee if deemed fit after discussion by the core committee (comprised of the chairperson, convener and advisor) within a week of the email communication.

iii) In case of failure to comply with the suggested remedial measure within a reasonable period after a reminder (1 weeks after the reminder), IADVL membership of the said member shall be suspended till the retraction is made.

iv) In case of repeat offenders (at least three instances), IADVL membership of the person indulging in unethical practices shall be suspended for a period of one year during which period the member shall not hold any elected/appointed IADVL posts. He or she invited as a faculty member in any IADVL conference/CME/workshop.
The reinstatement after a period of one year would be done only after an undertaking stated that such behaviour that led to the suspension would not be repeated.

v) In case of grave offences such as providing training to unqualified people, the IADVL lifetime membership person may be cancelled. The same shall be communicated to the concerned state medical council/NMC for appropriate action.

vi) NMC code of ethics states that "a physician should expose, without fear or favour, incompetent or corrupt, dishonest or unethical conduct on the part of members of the profession." Other physicians/dentists who breach these ethics guidelines should be reported to the respective state medical/dental councils. Respective state IADVL EC shall follow up the complaint to ensure appropriate action. In case of non doctors, the complaint shall be made to the platform administrator.

These guidelines have been created with the sole purpose of empowering dermatologists and helping lay public access accurate information from authentic people on social media. The basis for these guidelines, the relevant portion of the notification of IMC (Professional Conduct, Etiquette and Ethics) 2002 , is quoted below. Curbing the freedom of Indian dermatologists while quacks are unfettered by ethics in the usage of social media is not the intention.

6. UNETHICAL ACTS: A physician shall not aid or abet or commit any of the following acts which shall be construed as unethical—

6.1 Advertising:

6.1.1. Soliciting of patients directly or indirectly, by a physician, by a group of physicians or by institutions or organisations is unethical. A physician shall not make use of him/her (or his/her name) as subject of any form or manner of advertising or publicity through any mode either alone or in conjunction with others which is of such a character as to invite attention to him or to his professional position, skill, qualification, achievements, attainments, specialities, appointments, associations, affiliations or honours and/or of such character as would ordinarily result in his self aggrandisement. A physician shall not give to any person, whether for compensation or otherwise, any approval, recommendation, endorsement, certificate, report or statement with respect of any drug, medicine, nostrum remedy, surgical, or therapeutic article, apparatus or appliance or any commercial product or article with respect of any property, quality or use thereof or any test, demonstration or trial thereof, for use in connection with his name, signature, or photograph in any form or manner of advertising through any mode nor shall he boast of cases, operations, cures or remedies or permit the publication of report thereof through any mode. A medical practitioner is however permitted to make a formal announcement in press regarding the following:

(1) On starting practice.
(2) On change of type of practice.
(3) On changing address.
(4) On temporary absence from duty.
(5) On resumption of another practice.
(6) On succeeding to another practice.
(7) Public declaration of charges.

7. MISCONDUCT: The following acts of commission or omission on the part of a physician shall constitute professional misconduct rendering him/her liable for disciplinary action
7.1 Violation of the Regulations: If he/she commits any violation of these Regulations.
7.14 The registered medical practitioner shall not disclose the secrets of a patient that have been learnt in the exercise of his / her profession except
i) in a court of law under orders of the Presiding Judge;
ii) in circumstances where there is a serious and identified risk to a specific person and / or community;
and

(16th July to 15th December 2024)

The IADVL Chhattisgarh Chapter is pleased to submit its comprehensive activity report for the first quarter of 2024. During this period, the chapter organized a diverse range of educational and outreach programs, fostering knowledge sharing and collaboration among dermatologists and other healthcare professionals in the state.

Chapter Activities: Cross Talk CME on Allergy Testing and Urticaria (April 7th, Raipur): This program transcended the boundaries of dermatology by inviting specialists from the field of allergy and immunology. The cross-talk format facilitated a comprehensive discussion on allergy testing procedures and their role in diagnosing urticaria. This collaborative approach aimed to equip dermatologists with a deeper understanding of allergy testing and its impact on treatment plans.

A Writ Petition (W.P. Respondents include the Union of India, State of Tamil Nadu, NMC, DCI, TNMC, and TNDC. The DCI and TNMC have submitted Counter Affidavits. During hearings, the DCI's guidelines (dated 06/12/2022) permitting dentists to perform hair transplantation and aesthetic procedures were challenged. The Hon'ble Chief Justice suggested that the validity of these guidelines should be specifically contested.

2. Following this, a new PIL (W.P. No. 36164 of 2024) was filed challenging the vires of the DCI guidelines. During the hearing on 19/12/2024, the Hon'ble High Court expressed concerns over the encroachment by dentists into dermatology and directed the State Government to file its response. Dr Maya Vedmurthy

Dr Adithi Jain
Convener

The time period from 16th July - 15th December 2024 has been an eventful one for The Practice Management Cell under the leadership of IADVL. As a group of nearly 20 members, various webinars have been conducted to create more awareness regarding the art of practice management.

In July 2024, the post of convener was passed on to Dr Adithi Jain with approval from President IADVL, Hon. Secretary General & Chairperson. The former convener Dr Cheena Langer continued to be a member of the PMC. In the month of July, concerns regarding GST in dermatology procedures was brought to the attention of PMC. The issue remained with the validity and acceptance of the GST list issued by IADVL as a lot of fellow dermatologists faced trouble with GST officers for the same. To address this, a Zoom meeting was held on 31st July by PMC & EC members along with a few fellow doctors who raised the concerns and financial experts for guidance in the right direction. Following this meeting, it was concluded that the central Finance Ministry would be approached with the latest GST list that is being followed to have better clarity on its implementation in practice. A meeting was held in September with Respected Finance Minister Smt. Nirmala Sitharaman which was attended by Chairperson Dr Maya Vedamurthy along with President IADVL in Chennai. The IADVL GST list was submitted and the pertaining concerns were submitted in document to the ministry. Following this essential submission, the annual report of PMC was presented by Convener Dr Adithi Jain at the Mid Derma Central Council meeting which was held at the IADVL Headquarters in New Delhi in August 2024. The meeting was held over two days and was attended by EC & CC members.

As per the activity schedule, one webinar was to be held between the time period of July to December. The webinar was conducted on Lasers in Practice on 22nd November 2024 with an attendance of nearly 100 joinees on Zoom workspace. The discussions included choosing between FDA & Non FDA approved devices, the maintenance and after sale of lasers and the guidelines to be followed when using energy based devices. The next webinar on Social Media in practice is to be held in January 2025.

With this we will be concluding the current tenure of Practice Management Cell. Hoping to see PMC soar to new heights with the upcoming year.

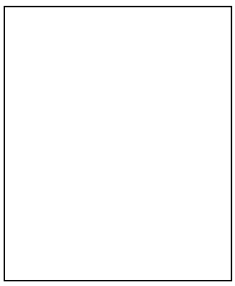
IADVL CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

(16th July to 15th December 2024)



Dr. Rajesh Verma
Chairperson

Dr. Biju Vasudevan
Convener

1. To avoid frequent changes in the constitution and to keep it abridged, the constitution committee was handed the responsibility by EC to prepare a shortened version of the existing constitution in alignment with the provisions of Registrar of Societies, so that change reports could be submitted more easily every year and the process of renewal becomes easy and smooth

   The Constitution Committee Chairperson, convener, advisors after internal discussion and advise from the EC have compiled the updated constitution into following three parts:

a. Memorandum of Association

b. Rules and Regulations

c. Rule Book (erstwhile SOP)

The memorandum and rules and regulations would be the documents sent to the registrar office for change reports henceforth as it will be an abridged version which will not require frequent changes.

The memorandum would be an introduction to the constitution related document while the rules and regulations specifies the important laws which will govern the society.

Certain portions of the constitution which are likely to undergo changes and also involving processes of administrative and repetitive nature were shifted to the SOP document. These shifted portions would have the same importance and bearing as in the earlier constitution of IADVL to maintain sanctity of constitution intact and to prevent any dilution of provisions of various clauses of constitution. The combined shifted portions and SOP would now be called the rule book. The rule book document was prepared by SOP committee and vetted by the constitution Committee.

The updated constitution has been approved by an emergency AGBM called on 12 Jan 2025 and has been unanimously accepted by the house.

2. The Constitution Committee was earlier tasked by the EC to bring out the changes of the existing constitution from the 1975 registered constitution. This being a mammoth task, the Constitution committee made a task force comprising of Constitution Committee and SOP Committee members with each member asked to look into different portions of the constitution. Each member then compiled his portions and put it up for discussion by all members. Once all changes were agreed to, the final changes between the two constitutions were tabulated and sent to the EC.

3. The Constitution Committee also updated the constitution based on the minutes of AGBM Feb 2024 including all such matters which had bearing on the constitution as brought in by various passed proposals. SOP COMMITTEE

(16th July to 15th December 2024)

Dr. Dinesh Kumar Devaraj
Chairperson

Dr. Divya K S
Convener

During the last quarter, our committee has diligently worked on multiple key initiatives to streamline processes and ensure efficient documentation. Here are the highlights of our activities:

1. Revision and Drafting of SOPs

The Constitution committee has reviewed the existing Constitution following the instructions from the National EC, identified sections from the Constitution that can be shifted to SOP and emailed the same to the SOP Committee. These sections were carefully reviewed by the SOP committee members and subsequently integrated into the SOP document. The work was divided into smaller, manageable parts for clarity and accuracy. Each section was meticulously compiled, and the part of the constitution shifted to SOP that has been highlighted in red for easy identification.

2. Streamlining Documentation

To enhance the usability and coherence of our documentation, annexures were reorganized and categorized under relevant sections. This effort has reduced unnecessary duplication. Page numbers and indexing have been updated. Alignment of the SOP book has been done.

3. Opinion on proposals

The opinion of the SOP Committee on the proposals has been submitted.

Dr. Narender Patwardhan
Chairperson

Dr. Pradyumna Vaidya
Convener

We commenced the second half of the year with a highly engaging and insightful webinar featuring Dr. Suresh Pethe from Pune, renowned as the "Iron Man after 60." Held on 25th July 2024, this webinar served as an inspiring platform, showcasing Dr. Pethe's remarkable journey and expertise. His insights resonated deeply with the audience, emphasizing resilience, health, and determination, especially in the later stages of life. This session not only set a motivational tone for the rest of the year but also underscored our commitment to delivering meaningful and impactful events.

Our second major event was the Cyclothon, organized during Mid Dermacon in Ranchi on 14th September 2024. Cycling offers numerous benefits for working individuals, improving physical health, mental well-being, productivity, and even financial savings. This unique initiative encouraged dermatologists to embrace cycling to stay active and promote a healthy lifestyle. The event received an overwhelming response, with many participants committing to incorporate cycling into their routines. This success reinforced our efforts to inspire wellness and camaraderie within the dermatology community.

On January 9, 2025, we had the privilege of hosting an inspiring webinar by Mr. Umesh Zirpe, a renowned motivational speaker and accomplished mountaineer, who has successfully led multiple expeditions to 8000-meter peaks, including the mighty Mt. Everest. The webinar was a truly engaging session where Mr. Zirpe shared his incredible journey of perseverance, leadership, and resilience. Drawing from his experiences in the challenging world of high-altitude mountaineering, he provided valuable insights into overcoming adversities, setting ambitious goals, and leading diverse teams under extreme conditions. His stories, infused with real-life anecdotes and breathtaking visuals from his expeditions, captivated the audience. Mr. Zirpe emphasized the importance of mental strength, meticulous planning, teamwork, and adaptability, all of which are crucial not only in mountaineering but also in navigating life's challenges. He also touched upon the lessons he learned while scaling peaks like Mt. Everest, the physical and psychological demands of such expeditions, and how he overcame setbacks and unpredictable obstacles during his journeys. This event was a remarkable opportunity to learn from an extraordinary individual whose achievements exemplify the power of grit and vision. It was a true reminder that with the right mindset and perseverance, no summit is out of reach.
